Granger Christian Awarded Accreditation from ACSI

GRANGER, June 14, 2010 - Granger Christian School is proud to announce that it was recently awarded accreditation from the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI). Receipt of the accreditation means the school was held to a high standard of excellence academically and administratively. Accreditation also provides more scholarship opportunities to Granger Christian School's graduates.

"The GCS family feels a great sense of pride in accomplishing this important milestone," stated Dr. Brain Dougherty, ACSI Certification Team Chair. "Accreditation is a valuable stamp of approval. Validation from the ACSI speaks to our commitment to academic excellence and to a distinctly Christian education."

Accreditation involves a thorough evaluation of a school's staff and curriculum, usually taking between two and three years to complete. After that point, the school maintains an on-going accountability to ACSI, identifying new goals and objectives to keep improving their offerings both as an academic and ministry organization.

Granger Christian School has been preparing students to impact the world through a Christ-centered education since 1972. Located on the corner of Brick and Gumwood in Granger, Granger Christian School offers strong academic and sports programs for grades K-12.
